

2008 Student of Integrity Scholarship Recipient

Sandria Vernon, this year's deserving recipient, is a student at South High School. She is a self-motivated student with a concentration in Accelerated courses and truly recognizes and values the rewards of learning. She is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the National Society for High School Scholars and maintains a 4.0GPA. She volunteers at Children's Hospital as well as numerous other healthcare facilities. She is most proud of her work with Young Fire Youth Group, where she has the opportunity to work with struggling youth.

Sandria will attend a private liberal arts college next fall to pursue her goal of becoming a Clinical Pathologist.
